2 STUDY CONDITIONS

2.1 General conditions

This excludes individuals seeking to enrol in a TAFE NSW CRICOS approved course to obtain a student visa under the Australian student visa program.

This excludes individuals who have obtained a student visa under the Australian student visa program.

2.1.3 Temporary visa holders with a visa condition number 8205 on their visa wishing to undertake study in TAFE NSW involving face-to-face learning for a period of more than 4 weeks must show in accordance with the Migration Act, evidence at enrolment of passing a chest X-ray examination carried by a medical practitioner who is qualified as a radiologist.

2.1.7 Holders of a visa with a condition of three or four months study may undertake study of three or four months once only during the duration of their visa.

2.1.8 Holders with a condition of three or four months study may undertake study of up to a total of 13 and 17 weeks respectively. These 13 and 17 weeks exclude holiday, vacation and initial orientation periods, but include:

- weekends, public holidays and the study vacation periods prior to starting the final examinations or other final assessments, and
- the last day of the final examinations or other final assessments.

- 2.1.9 New Zealand residents, other than New Zealand citizens, entering Australia have their study eligibility determined according to their visa sub-class. This includes New Zealand permanent residents.
- 2.1.10 Temporary visa holders are required to notify campus student administration staff of any change in their residency status, including their visa conditions.
- 2.1.11 Students found to have made false claims regarding their residency status are liable to be excluded from TAFE NSW and may have legal action taken against them.
- 2.1.12 Procedures to be followed in enrolling temporary visa holders in TAFE NSW courses are outlined in the Temporary Visa Holders Enrolment Administrative Procedures – TAFE NSW.

2.2 Programs Funded outside the TAFE NSW fee

- 2.2.1 Temporary visa holders who are eligible to enrol in programs funded outside the TAFE NSW fee (Outside Funded Programs) do not pay the TAFE NSW fee, Concession fee or tuition fees. This excludes core-funded programs outlined in 2.2.2.

- 2.2.3 Temporary visa holders' eligibility to enrol in an Outside Funded Program (other than in those programs outlined in 2.2.2) is subject to the guidelines for that program and must be confirmed prior to enrolment by the appropriate Institute contact officer. NOTES

1 When this visa indicates a condition of a maximum of three months study then the holder may only undertake TAFE NSW modules/units with a duration of up to three months as specified in their visa condition. Tuition fees, the TAFE NSW fee or Concession fee apply.

1a Changes to legislation in July 2009 now allow holders of this Bridging visa subclass to remain lawfully in Australia while they have the Department's decision (cancellation or refusal of visa) reviewed. Please note that there are no changes to the study conditions that may be imposed on this visa subclass. See Note 1 above.

2 The applicable TAFE NSW fee or Concession fee is determined according to guidelines outlined in the 2010 Enrolment Administrative Procedures – TAFE NSW.

3 Holders may only enrol in commercial programs that do not lead to a formal AQF qualification for a maximum of three months. Commercial fees are determined by the Institute Business Unit.

Dependants of International Students wishing to undertake study of a longer duration should be referred to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship, ph: 131 881).

4 Holders may only undertake TAFE NSW modules/units with a duration of up to three months (or four months) as specified in their visa condition. Refer to items 2.1.7 and 2.1.8 of this document.

5 Holders are only permitted to enrol in their specifically tailored professional development program. Fees are determined by the Institute Business Units.

6 Primary course must be an apprenticeship or pre-apprenticeship program. Holders may engage in additional study in TAFE NSW.

7 When the visa indicates a condition No 8539 or 8549 the holder is not permitted to study outside the regional designated area.

8 Refer to TAFE International Students Centre for enrolment in a CRICOS course, ph: 02 9217 4801. Those international students wishing to enrol in additional part-time study outside their CRICOS approved course must be referred to TAFE NSW Institutes. Additional information and fees to be charged by TAFE NSW Institutes are included in section 7 of this document.

9 High school students on a temporary visa and high school exchange students on a visa sub-classes 571 who are enrolled in the TAFE Delivered HSC VET (TVET) are to be enrolled in the same manner as all other TVET students.

For the TAFE NSW funding and billing arrangements for the government and non-government school sectors refer to the TAFE Delivered HSC VET courses (TVET) Guidelines for the current year.

These students however must pay tuition fees and the TAFE NSW fee or Concession fee if they wish to enrol in a TAFE course beyond their approved TAFE Delivered HSC VET courses (TVET).

10 When the visa indicates a condition No 8207 holders are not entitled to study in TAFE NSW

11 Principal holders may only undertake study which is related to the special program for which their visa was granted. Secondary holders may undertake study on payment of tuition fees and the TAFE NSW fee.

12 Prison inmates holding temporary visas permitting them to study are exempt from payment of tuition fees and the TAFE NSW fee or Concession fee if participating in VET provision covered by the Memorandum of Understanding between TAFE NSW and the Department of Corrective Services. Institute staff should contact the Institute Correctional Centre Liaison Officer (ICCLO) for clarification about the VET provision covered by the Memorandum of Understanding.

NOTE:

1. International students taking subjects on a part-time basis do not need to pay TAFE NSW fee apart from the above tuition fee.
2. The above table covers subjects up to 90 hours of tuition. If the number of hours exceeds 90, find out the fee for the excess hours and add it to the one for 90 hours. For example, if a subject under Aboriginal discipline has 120 hours, the excess will be 30. The fee will be:

	Fee for 30 hours	$ 570
Add:	Fee for 90 hours	$1 710
	Fee for 120 hours	$2 280

3. The courses grouped under the above areas of study can be found at:
http://www.definternational.nsw.edu.au/tafe/c_findacourse.html
